PREFACE

The change in the United Kingdom Government, the United Kingdom general election, several important by-elections for the Canadian House of Commons, the 1924 general elections for the legislature of British Columbia, changes in the Governments of Ontario, Quebec, New Brunswick and Saskatchewan, numerous provincial by-elections, are accountable for the outstanding features of this issue of the Canadian Parliamentary Guide.

An official list (with correct addresses) of the members of the newly elected British Columbia legislature is printed. The complete official election returns are given as well as detailed returns of all by-elections which have taken place for the House of Commons and for the several Provincial Legislatures since the publication of the last issue (June, 1924).

The important tables giving the results of every general and by-election for the House of Commons in the various electoral divisions since Confederation, which have always been such an approved feature of the past editions of the Parliamentary Guide, are repeated. Several additional important corrections have been made in these tables.

As usual, every precaution has been taken to secure completeness and accuracy in the important biographical sections of this volume. A sketch of every Canadian Parliamentarian at present a Member of the Senate, the House of Commons, the Legislative Councils of Quebec and Nova Scotia and the various Legislative Assemblies is given; but it is regretted that in a few cases these sketches are very brief and incomplete, this being due to the failure of the gentlemen concerned to comply with the urgent requests for data upon which to base comprehensive biographical sketches. As usual, when gentlemen solicited to supply the data necessary to compile detailed biographical sketches fail to respond, the editor restricts himself to the bare facts set forth in the official election papers. Experience has shown that this is the only safe practice to pursue if the reputation of this book for scrupulous accuracy is to be maintained.

The editor wishes to draw attention to the importance of readers consulting the lines inserted at the head of each section of this volume which indicate the dates at which the revision of the chapter or section of reading matter immediately following was completed. It is obvious that the revision of every page or even every section of a book of reference like this cannot be completed the same day, and as the revision is based upon official data received from all parts of this widespread Dominion there is a considerable variation in the dates of the final revision of the various sections. An effort is made to supplement the data contained in the several sections and to bring it up-to-date to the time of the issue of the book, by embodying in the appendix outstanding changes occurring between the dates of the revision of the various chapters or sections and the date of publication.

Revision of the matter contained in the Canadian Parliamentary Guide is an all-the-year task requiring the constant attention of the editor and those associated with him; but in spite of the greatest care and vigilance, omissions occur and mistakes creep in. Readers will contribute towards the accuracy and completeness aimed at if they will communicate errors or omissions they may notice, however slight, to the undersigned.

Once more the editor feels it incumbent upon him to express his obligations to the many public officers, parliamentarians and readers generally who by their co-operation have contributed to the completeness of the information contained in this volume.

ERNEST J. CHAMBERS.

PARLIAMENT OF THE UNITED KINGDOM.

The King, as sovereign, exercises all powers of executive government through a cabinet composed of certain sworn privy councillors, who act as advisers of the Crown, and conduct the public administration in accordance with law and constitutional usage. The Crown is hereditary, but subject to such limitations as may be imposed by Parliament—i.e., by the Crown, the Lords and the Commons.

The Cabinet, or Committee of Ministers, in whom the executive government of Great Britain and Ireland is practically, though not nominally, vested, is selected with the approval of the Crown, by a Premier or First Minister, who is the choice of the Crown, the existence of the Cabinet, the members of which belong to His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, being dependent upon the possession of the confidence of a majority in the House of Commons, the popular branch of Parliament.

The Parliament of the United Kingdom is composed of the Crown, the Lords, and the Commons, this division into three branches dating from the middle of the fourteenth century. The House of Lords, the Magnum Concilium of ancient days, consists of archbishops, bishops and peers, the latter divided into dukes, marquesses, earls, viscounts and barons. Three princes of the Royal blood have also seats in the house. No peer can take his seat if he be under age, of unsound mind, or bankrupt. The Speaker is the Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain, who is a member of the Cabinet and retires with a change of government. The House of Lords has co-ordinate powers of legislation with the House of Commons, except as respects taxation or money bills.

It cannot initiate or amend such bills, but it may reject them, as a whole. The maximum duration of the British Parliament is five years.

The House of Commons is the body where the chief political power rests. Since the general election held Nov. 15, 1922 it has consisted of 615 members. Up to dissolution, preceding the election in question, there had been 707 members, the absence of members from the South of Ireland on account of the creation of the Irish Free State being responsible for the decrease. The first Parliament of King George which was elected in January, 1910, was dissolved Nov. 28, 1910, and the term of the 2nd Parlt. Geo. V., elected December, 1910, on account of the war, was extended. The third Parliament of King George was elected in December, 1918. This general election presented several new features. For one thing the voting was done in one day. Then it was the first time that women voted in Britain, and the first time that there were women candidates.

The Third Parliament of King George was dissolved Oct. 26, 1922, and the general election held November 15, 1922, resulted as follows:—

Conservative (Govt.) 347; Labour, 142; National Liberal (Georgian), 59; Liberal (Asquithian), 59; Independent, 5; Nationalist, 2; Sinn Fein, 1; Total, 615.

The fourth parliament of King George V (being the first parliament of Great Britain and Northern Ireland), was dissolved on November 16, 1923, and voting for a new parliament took place December 6th. The election resulted as follows:—Conservatives, 256; Labour, 192; Liberal, 159; other parties 8; total 615. Eight women were among the successful candidates.

The fifth parliament of King George V was dissolved October 9th, 1924, and the polling in the resulting general election held on October 29th. The result of the vote was as follows:—Conservative, 413; Labour and Socialist (Govt.), 150; Liberal, 39; Constitutionalist, 7; Independent, 4; Irish Nationalist, 1; Speaker, 1; total 615.

Although forty-one women candidates stood for Parliament in 1924 only four were elected compared with eight in 1923.

Labour representation in the House of Commons since 1900 has been as follows:— 1900, 2; 1906, 29; 1910, 40; 1918, 57; 1922, 142; 1923, 193; 1924, 150.

August 14, 1911, the House of Commons of the United Kingdom by a vote of 241 to 128 passed a resolution appropriating £252,000 for the payment of members' salaries for the then ensuing year. This action was taken pursuant to a resolution passed August 10, providing for an annual salary of £400 for each member of the House of Commons. This was a radical departure from the principle of gratuitous public service which hitherto prevailed in the Commons of the United Kingdom.

Lady Astor, the first woman elected a member of the House of Commons of the United Kingdom, took her seat December 1, 1919.

THE UNITED KINGDOM GOVERNMENT.

(Revised March 5, 1925)

The Government of the Right Hon. David Lloyd George, first formed in 1915 and reorganized in 1918 and 1921 ended with the resignation of the Prime Minister, October 19, 1922. This resignation was the direct result of a meeting of Conservative members of Parliament held at the Carleton Club at which a resolution was passed to withdraw from support of the Coalition. On the recommendation of Mr. Lloyd George, His Majesty sent for the Right Hon. Andrew Bonar Law, leader of the Conservative party, to form a government, which he did forthwith.

On account of failing health, Mr. Bonar Law (C) resigned the Premiership, May 20, 1923, and on May 22nd, the Rt. Hon. Stanley Baldwin (C) accepted the vacant office offered him by the King. The new Prime Minister being in favour of a measure of Protection, and Mr. Bonar Law during the electoral campaign of 1922 having pledged himself that a Conservative victory at the polls would not be taken as a popular demand for the adoption of the Protective system, advised His Majesty to dissolve Parliament, which he did. At the resultant election in December, 1923, the Conservative (Government) party secured more supporters than either of the other parties but fell short of gaining a majority over all other parties combined. As all of the other parties had pronounced themselves opposed to the principle of Protection, the Cabinet after careful consideration of the constitutional precedents and their bearings upon the situation which had arisen as a result of the elections, decided that it was their constitutional duty to meet Parliament at the earliest possible moment. A session was summoned for January 8, 1924, and the Government, having received an adverse vote in the House of Commons Mr. Baldwin on January 22nd tendered his resignation to His Majesty and advised the Sovereign to send for Mr. James Ramsay MacDonald, (Labour) who as leader of the most numerous party in opposition, was recognized as official opposition leader. Mr. MacDonald accepted the task offered him and the new cabinet was officially announced the same afternoon.

October 8, 1924, a vote of censure on the government of Mr. Ramsay MacDonald on account of the withdrawal of a prosecution for sedition in the courts by the Attorney General was passed in the House of Commons by a vote of 364 to 198, and the following day, the Prime Minister recommended dissolution to the King, who accepted it, the parliament being forthwith dissolved. The government being defeated at the ensuing elections on October 29th, Mr. Ramsay MacDonald, the Prime Minister, on November 4th, tendered his resignation, which was accepted; the King sending for Mr. Stanley Baldwin to form a cabinet, which he did, and the new ministry assumed office November 7th, composed as follows:—

THE DOMINION OF CANADA.

The territories which now constitute the Dominion of Canada came under the British flag at various times, some by settlement and others by conquest or cession. Nova Scotia (Acadia) was discovered by the Cabots, in the service of King Henry VII, in 1497. That part of Canada now forming the Province of Quebec was discovered by Jacques Cartier, in the service of King Francis I of France, in 1534. The Colony of Halifax was founded in 1749. By the treaty of Utrecht (1713) Acadia, and the Hudson Bay Territory (Hudson Bay was discovered by Henry Hudson in 1610) were acknowledged to be British Territory. The Hudson Bay Company's charter, conferring right of government over the territory now known as the Provinces of Manitoba, Saskatchewan, Alberta, and the North-West Territories, was granted in 1670. The old French Colony of Canada was surrendered by the capitulation of Montreal, signed September 8, 1760, and along with Prince Edward Island, and part of the present Province of New Brunswick, formally ceded to Great Britain by France under the Treaty of Paris, signed Feb. 10, 1763.

Vancouver Island was acknowledged to be British by the Oregon Boundary Treaty of 1846, and British Columbia was occupied in 1858.

As originally constituted, the Dominion of Canada was composed of the provinces of Ontario, Quebec, Nova Scotia, and New Brunswick. They were united under the provisions of an Act of the Imperial Parliament (30 Victoria, Chapter III) passed in 1867, and commonly cited as "The British North America Act, 1867," although its full official designation originally was:—"An Act for the Union of Canada, Nova Scotia and New Brunswick, and the government thereof, and for purposes connected therewith." This Act received the Royal assent March 29th, 1867, and came into effect by virtue of Royal Proclamation July 1st, 1867. This Act expressly provides that the Constitution of the Dominion shall be "similar in principle to that of the United Kingdom" (1st clause), so that the executive authority shall be vested in the Sovereign of Great Britain and Ireland, and carried on in her name by a Governor-General and

Council "to aid and advise in the government of Canada, to be styled the Queen's Privy Council for Canada." (Clauses 9, 10 and 11). Provision was made in the Act for the admission of British Columbia, Prince Edward Island, the North-West Territories, and Newfoundland into the Dominion (Clause 146). Newfoundland alone has not availed itself of such provision. In 1869 the extensive region known under the various designations of "Rupert's Land," "the Hudson Bay Territory," and "the North-West Territory," was added to the Dominion by purchase from the Hudson Bay Company. The Province of Manitoba was set apart out of a portion of it (32-33 Victoria, Chap. 3), and admitted into the Confederation July 15, 1870.

July 20, 1871, the Province of British Columbia, and July 1, 1873, the province of Prince Edward Island, respectively, entered the confederation.

June 25, 1886, the Royal assent was given to "An Act respecting the representation in the Parliament of Canada of Territories which for the time being form part of the Dominion of Canada, but are not included in any Province," commonly cited as "The British North America Act, 1886" (49-50 Victoria, Chapter XXXV).

This Act provides that the Parliament of Canada may, from time to time, make provisions for the representation in the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, or in either of them, of any Territories which, for the time being, form part of the Dominion of Canada, but are not included in any Province thereof.

The Provinces of Alberta and Saskatchewan were formed from the provisional districts of Alberta, Athabaska, Assiniboia and Saskatchewan (4-5 Edward VII, Chap. 3 and 42), and were admitted to the Union as Provinces on September 1st, 1905.

During the first session of the 12th Parliament a bill was passed extending the areas of Manitoba, Ontario, and Quebec northward by adding to those provinces portions of the North-West Territory.

Population:—Census of 1911, 7,206,643: Census of 1921, 8,788,483. Estimate of population by the Bureau of Statistics, December 1st, 1924, 9,226,740.

THE GOVERNMENT OF CANADA.

The present Canadian system of government, which was established under the British North America Act of 1867, is a Federal Union, the first of the kind in the British Empire. It comprises a general or central government controlling matters essential to the development, the permanency and the unity of the Dominion as a whole, and also a number of provincial governments having the control and management of certain clearly defined local matters naturally and conveniently falling within their jurisdiction. These several governments are administered in strict accordance with the principles of British parliamentary government.

The executive power of the Government of the Dominion of Canada, as also the chief command of the military and naval forces, is vested in the King, represented by the Governor-General, appointed by the Crown (the British Government) and advised by a Cabinet chosen from members of the King's Privy Council for Canada, and consisting of ministers holding departmental offices, besides, often, one or more ministers without portfolios. The Government holds office as long as it has the confidence of the popular branch of Parliament.

It is not necessary that all the members of the Cabinet be members of the Senate or the House of Commons as long as the Cabinet, as a whole, has the confidence of the popular branch of Parliament.

According to the B.N.A. Act, 1867, Sec. 55, where a Bill passed by the Houses of Parliament is presented to the Governor-General for the Queen's assent, he shall declare, according to his discretion, but subject to the provisions of the mentioned Act and to Her Majesty's instruction, either that he assents thereto in the Queen's name, or that he withholds the Queen's assent, or that he reserves the Bill for the signification of the Queen's pleasure.

GOVERNOR-GENERAL AND COMMANDER-IN-CHIEF.

He served in Soudan Expedition, 1884, including El Teb and Tamai (medal with clasp, Khedive's star); in South Africa, 1899-1902 (despatches, Queen's medal with six clasps, King's medal), and during the Great War, in both France and the Dardanelles. He was made M.V.O. 1902, C.B. (Mil.), 1906; K.C.M.G., 1915; K.C.B., 1916, and G.C.B., 1919. At the conclusion of the Great War he received the thanks of Parliament for his services and a grant of thirty thousand pounds, and was by Letters Patent, dated 7th October, 1919, created Baron Byng of Vimy and Thorpe-le-Soken, County Essex, to hold to him and the heirs male of his body. ADMINISTRATOR OF THE GOVERNMENT.

Up to May 7, 1901, it was provided by Royal Letters Patent that the "powers granted His Excellency may in the case of his death, incapacity or absence, be given to the Lieutenant-Governor for the time being of Canada, or in his absence to such person as Her Majesty might, by warrant, appoint to be Administrator, or in the absence of such Lieutenant-Governor or Administrator to the Senior Military Officer for the time being in command of Her Majesty's regular Forces in the Dominion."

Upon the date mentioned a dormant commission passed under the Royal Sign Manual and Signet appointing the Chief Justice for the time being of the Supreme Court of Canada, or in the case of the death, incapacity, removal or absence from Canada of the Chief Justice, the Senior Judge of the Supreme Court of Canada, to be Administrator of the Government of the Dominion in the event of the death, incapacity, removal or absence of the Governor-General.

The Royal Letters Patent of June 15, 1905, which provided for the change in the designation of His Excellency's office from that of "Governor-General in and over the Dominion of Canada," to that of "Governor-General and Commander-in-Chief in and over the Dominion of Canada," contained the same provision as to the Administrator as the dormant Commission, and that instrument, being thus rendered superfluous, was withdrawn and cancelled.

The Administrator is vested with all the powers and authorities granted to the Governor-General by letters patent or otherwise. (See Supreme Court of Canada.)

THE SENATE OF CANADA.

According to the British North America Act, 1867, the Senate as originally constituted was to consist of 72 members; 24 for the Province of Ontario, 24 for Quebec and 24 for the Maritime Provinces (Nova Scotia and New Brunswick). Qualifications were laid down as follows:—Must be a British subject; must be thirty years of age; must be possessed of real property, free of all incumbrances, to the value of $4,000; must be a resident of the province for which he is appointed. Senators are appointed by the Governor-General in Council and, subject to certain conditions, hold their appointments for life. A Senator may by writing resign his seat. His place becomes vacant (1) if for two consecutive sessions of Parliament he fails to attend; (2) if he becomes a subject or citizen of a foreign power; (3) if he becomes a bankrupt or defaulter (4) if he is attainted of felony or convicted of felony or crime; (5) if he ceases to be qualified in respect of property. The Governor-General in Council appoints the Speaker of the Senate, the Clerk and the Gentleman Usher of the Black Rod. The debates and proceedings of the Senate are governed by Rules and Orders modelled to a considerable extent after those of the House of Lords and differing very considerably from those of the House of Commons. Thus honourable gentlemen, rising to speak, address themselves to the "Honourable Gentlemen," composing the House, and not to "Mr. Speaker," as in the House of Commons.

Each of the Senators from Quebec is appointed to represent one of 24 divisions corresponding with former electoral divisions of the old Province of Lower Canada. Senators for other provinces are not appointed for any designated divisions, but the practice of assuming distinctive territorial designations prevails. A popular practice of Senators who have formerly sat in the House of Commons is to adopt as their designations the titles of their former constituencies. Several are content to be designated as "from" the city or town in which they reside. Senators must continue to reside in the province from which they are appointed.

The first increase in the membership of the Senate took place in 1871, when Manitoba and British Columbia, upon entering the Confederation, were awarded two and three seats respectively. In 1873 Prince Edward Island, upon entering Confederation, was given four members, the representation of Nova Scotia and New Brunswick being reduced by two senators each. In 1882 Manitoba was given an additional member and in 1892 another.

In 1888 the North-West Territories were given two senators. In 1904, in virtue of the Act 3 Edward VII, Chapter 42, the representation of the North-West Territories was increased to four. Upon creation of the Provinces of Alberta and Saskatchewan in 1905, each was allotted 4 seats in the Senate, or eight seats between them.

The Senate as then constituted consisted of 87 members as follows:—Ontario, 24; Quebec, 24; Nova Scotia, 10; New Brunswick, 10; Prince Edward Island, 4; British Columbia, 3; Manitoba, 4; Saskatchewan, 4; Alberta, 4.

During the session of 1914 (3rd session XII Parliament) the government introduced a measure providing for the increase of representation in the Senate to 96. This measure provided that the detail of representation should be as follows:—Ontario by 24 senators; Quebec, by 24 senators; the Maritime Provinces and Prince Edward Island, by 24 senators, 10 thereof representing Nova Scotia, 10 thereof representing New Brunswick and 4 thereof representing Prince Edward Island; the western provinces by 24 senators, 6 thereof representing Manitoba, 6 thereof representing British Columbia, 6 thereof representing Saskatchewan and 6 Alberta.

This measure as amended by the Senate came into effect upon the dissolution of the 12th parliament.

In accordance with 5th Edward VII, Chapter 43, an allowance was made to each member of the Senate and House of Commons, of $20 for each day's attendance if the session did not extend beyond thirty days, and if the session extended beyond that time an allowance of $2,500 was made. For every day on which a member did not attend a sitting of his House a deduction at the rate of $15 per day was made.

During the fourth session of the 13th Parliament of Canada (1920) there was passed an Act to amend the Salaries Act and the Senate and House of Commons Act, which provided for an increase in the sessional indemnities of Senators and Members of the House of Commons from $2,500 to $4,000. In view of the increased indemnity, certain restrictive provisions were imposed in the Bill, the chief of which read as follows: "A member shall not be entitled to the sessional allowance if he does not attend a sitting of the House of which he is a member on at least three-fourths of the days upon which such House sits; but the allowance for any less number of days shall be twenty-five dollars for each day's attendance."

It was provided in this legislation that the Prime Minister need not be burdened with a portfolio and that he receive a salary of $15,000, the other ministers to receive salaries of $10,000 each.

Provision was also made for the raising of the salaries of the Speakers of the Senate and House of Commons from $4,000 to $6,000 and the salary of the Deputy Speaker of the House of Commons from $2,000 to $4,000.

THE HOUSE OF COMMONS OF CANADA.

The House of Commons of Canada is elected by the people for five years, unless sooner dissolved by the Governor-General. Members require no property qualifications, but they must be of the age of 21, and British subjects, not disqualified by law. The Speaker is chosen by the House at the opening sitting of the first session of each parliament.

The members are elected by constituencies and voting is by ballot.

The number of members of the House of Commons is regulated by the following clauses of the British North America Act, 1867:—

“51. On the completion of the Census in the year One Thousand Eight Hundred and Seventy-One, and of each subsequent decennial Census, the representation of the four Provinces shall be readjusted by such authority, in such a manner, and from such time as the Parliament of Canada from time to time provides, subject and according to the following Rules:—

“(1). Quebec shall have the fixed number of Sixty-five members.

“(2). There shall be assigned to each of the other Provinces such a number of members as will bear the same proportion to the number of its population (ascertained at such Census) as the number Sixty-five bears to the number of the population of Quebec (so ascertained).

“(3). In the computation of the number of members for a Province a fractional part not exceeding one-half of the whole number requisite for entitling the Province to a member shall be disregarded; but a fractional part exceeding one-half of that number shall be equivalent to the whole number.

“(4). On any such readjustment the number of members for a Province shall not be reduced unless the proportion which the number of the population of the Province bore to the number of the aggregate population of Canada at the then last preceding readjustment of the numbers of members for the Province is ascertained at the then latest Census to be diminished by one twentieth part or upwards.

“(5). Such readjustments shall not take effect until the termination of the then existing Parliament.

“52. The number of the members of the House of Commons may from time to time be increased by the Parliament of Canada, providing the proportionate representation of the Province prescribed by this Act is not thereby disturbed.”

At Confederation (1867) the House of Commons consisted of 181 members of which Ontario returned 82; Quebec 65; Nova Scotia, 19; and New Brunswick, 15. During the fourth session of the 1st Parliament the representation was increased to 191, Manitoba (4 members) and British Columbia (6 members) having entered Confederation.

The representation in the 2nd Parliament (July 8, 1872, to Jan. 2, 1874), under the Redistribution Act of 1872, was 200 up to the last sessions, when there was an increase of 6 members owing to the admission of Prince Edward Island to Confederation. Ontario had 88 members; Quebec, 65; Nova Scotia, 21; New Brunswick, 16; Manitoba, 4; British Columbia, 6.

In the 3rd Parliament (Jan. 2, 1874, to August 17, 1878), and in the 4th Parliament (Aug. 17, 1878, to May 18, 1882) the representation remained as at the dissolution of the 2nd Parliament, viz:—Ontario, 88; Quebec, 65; Nova Scotia, 21; New Brunswick, 16; Manitoba, 4; British Columbia, 6; Prince Edward Island, 6. Total 206.

The representation in the 5th Parliament (May 16, 1882, to Jan. 15, 1887) under the Representation Act of 1887, was increased to 211, the Ontario representation being increased from 88 to 92 and that of Manitoba from 4 to 5.

In the 6th Parliament (Jan. 15, 1887, to Feb. 3, 1891), the representation remained unchanged, except that in 1887 the North-West Territories were granted representation with 4 members, thus making a total representation of 215.

During the 7th Parliament (Feb. 3, 1891, to April 24, 1896) there was no change in the representation.

In the 8th Parliament (April 24, 1896, to Oct. 9, 1900), under the Representation Act of 1892-3, the representation was as follows:—Ontario, 92; Quebec, 65; Nova Scotia, 20; New Brunswick, 14; Manitoba, 7; British Columbia, 6; Prince Edward Island, 5; North-West Territories, 4. Total, 213.

During the 9th Parliament (Oct. 9, 1900, to Sept. 29, 1904), there was but one change in the representation, a seat being added for the Yukon Territory (Chap. 37, 1902). This made 214 members, distributed as follows:—Ontario, 86; Quebec, 65; Nova Scotia, 18; New Brunswick, 13; Manitoba, 10; North-West Territories, 10; British Columbia, 7; Prince Edward Island, 4; the Yukon Territory, 1.

The House remained so constituted until the dissolution of the 10th Parliament, September 17th, 1908.

During the first session of the Tenth Parliament of Canada (1905) provision was made for the creation of the new provinces of Saskatchewan and Alberta out of part of the North-West Territories, and provision was made for the taking of a census of population in the two new provinces, as also in Manitoba, in the middle year of each decade commencing with 1906. The results of the first quinquennial census made necessary, according to the Saskatchewan and Alberta Acts, a readjustment of the representation of Saskatchewan and Alberta in the House of Commons, and at the session of 1906-07 an amendment was passed to the Representation Act (Chapter 5 of the Revised Statutes 1906) providing that the House of Commons shall consist of two hundred and twenty-one (221) members, as follows:—Ontario 86;

Quebec, 65; Saskatchewan, 10 (a gain of 4); British Columbia, 7; Alberta, 7 (a gain of 3); Prince Edward Island, 4; Yukon Territory, 1.

By a special clause embodied in this Act, it only took effect upon the dissolution of the 10th Parliament.

During the session of 1914 (3rd session 12th Parlt.) a Redistribution Bill was passed, providing for an increase in the number of members of the House of Commons to 235, divided among the provinces as follows:—Ontario, 82; Quebec, 65; Nova Scotia, 16; New Brunswick, 11; Manitoba, 15; British Columbia 13; Prince Edward Island, 4; Saskatchewan, 16; Alberta, 12; Yukon, 1; Total 235. The new Act came into effect with the dissolution of the Twelfth Parliament.

During the session of 1923 (2nd of the 14th Parlt.) the Government introduced a Redistribution Bill based upon the census of 1921. It was not passed before prorogation and was accordingly re-introduced at the 1924 session and with certain amendments adopted. Under its provisions the Maritime Provinces lose two members; both in Nova Scotia; the Prairie Provinces gain eleven—four going to Alberta, five to Saskatchewan and two to Manitoba. British Columbia gains one. The other provinces remain as at present, as does the representation of Yukon Territory. The net increase in representation for the whole Dominion is, therefore, ten.

The distribution of the seats among the provinces provided for in the Act is as follows:

HOUSE OF COMMONS ELECTIONS.

Proclamation of Dissolution of the 13th Parliament, dated October 4th, 1921. Nomination November 22, 1921. Polling December 6th, 1921. Writs made returnable January 15, 1922.

The election for the 13th Parliament in 1917 was held under "The Dominion Elections Act" and the "Military Voter's Act 1917," and consequently under unprecedented conditions. Polling took place, not only in Canada, but Overseas, and not merely in British territory, but in allied countries as well. Each man serving in the Canadian Army and Navy was entitled to vote and so were his immediate female relations of age. The unusual period of four weeks intervened between nomination and election day, was attributable to the operation of the Military Voters' Act and the time required for polling overseas. At home, as usual, the voting was confined to one day, December 17, 1917, except in the Yukon, where voting took place Jan. 28, 1918, and Nelson, Man., where the election (acclamation) took place March 4th. Overseas it began within a week after nomination and continued up to the hour when the polls closed in Canada. Contrary to customary practice, for a Federal franchise operated in this election, provincial lists were not used. Returning officers selected enumerators to compile new Dominion lists and, for the first time in a Dominion election, these lists contained the names of women. Complete woman suffrage was not granted, but the wives, mothers, widows and sisters of soldiers were entitled to vote. Army nurses were also accorded votes.

Naturalized aliens of enemy nationality whose citizenship was secured since 1902 were debarred from the privilege of voting at this election.

While the laws governing the election were exceptional so was the political situation. Instead of the two historical political parties confronting one another on familiar lines, in this case a "Union" Government party including Liberal "Unionists" as well as Conservatives and Conservative "Unionists" faced an opposition consisting of anti-Unionist Liberals.

In the returns of the general election of 1917, (G) after the name signifies that the candidate was officially endorsed by the Government (Unionist) leader; (O) that the candidate was endorsed by Sir Wilfred Laurier, leader of the Opposition: (Lab.) that the candidate was endorsed by the Labour Party: and (S.D.) that the candidate was endorsed by the Social Democratic party. It will be noticed that some candidates ran without any formal party endorsement, as provided in the Act.

In the returns for all other elections the political affiliation of candidates is indicated as follows:—(C) for Conservative or "Liberal-Conservative", (Ind.) for Independent, (Lab.) for Labour, (L.) for Liberal, (Soc.) for Socialist, (P.) for Progressive.

The votes cast for each candidate at the general election of 1921 [14th (present) parliament], as per official declaration, are recorded below, together with a record of the majorities in each constituency at each previous general election and by-election since Confederation.

In 1887, when the old Northwest Territories were first given representation in the House of Commons, four electoral divisions were created:—

(1) Assiniboia East, adjoining Province of Manitoba; (2) Assiniboia West, next; (3) Alberta, extending to the boundary of British Columbia, and (4) Saskatchewan, in the north. Under the Act of 1903, the two Assiniboias and Saskatchewan were given six seats, namely: Assiniboia East, Assiniboia West, Humboldt, Mackenzie, Qu'Appelle, Saskatchewan. These old divisions practically compose the present Province of Saskatchewan, which, according to the Act of 1906-07, returns 10 members to the House of Commons, the constituencies being: Assiniboia, Battleford, Humboldt, Mackenzie, Moose Jaw, Prince Albert, Qu'Appelle, Regina, Saltcoats and Saskatoon.

Broadly speaking, this constituency was an amalgamation of the Confederation ridings of "Cornwall" and "Stormont." In the Redistribution Act preceding the gen. elec. of 1882, the original two counties disappeared as such; but the new division of "Cornwall and Stormont" replaced them. Under the Redistribution Act of 1903 the name "Cornwall" disappeared altogether.

So in the above table, the figures for the elections up to and including 1891 are for what to that date was known as the constituency of Selkirk, but which territorially is identical, or practically so, with the present constituency of Lisgar.

(1) The first elec. in Marquette after the admiss. of Manitoba into Confed. was held Mar. 2, 1871. The return of the returning officer showed that each of the two candidates had received the same number of votes. The ret. officer had not, as now, the right to give his casting vote. In due course the matter came before the Hou. of C. and was referred to the Com. of Privileges and Elecs., who reported that the ret. officer should (under the old system of double returns) have declared both candidates elected. Under an order of the House (April 25), the Clerk of the Crown in Chancery, attended and on motion of the Hon. Mr. Cameron, of Peel, a resolution was passed, instructing the Clerk of the Crown in Chancery to amend the return so as to declare both candidates elected. This was done, and Dr. Lynch, who was present in Ottawa, forthwith subscribed to the oath and took his seat. Then Hon. Mr. Cameron drew attention to the rule which provided that a member must withdraw while the matter of his election was before the House, whereupon Dr. Lynch withdrew. May 13, Mr. McKay, having arrived in Ottawa, presented himself and took the oath and his seat. Under similar conditions as Dr. Lynch he withdrew. A delay of six weeks was allowed the Elec. Com. to enquire into the matter. Before the House finally disposed of the matter Parliament was dissolved. (See Journals of the House.)

(2) Mr. Cunningham died while the protest against his return was before the courts.

NORTHERN ONTARIO

CANADA

NORTHERN ONTARIO stretches from the Province of Quebec on the east to Manitoba on the west, and extends north from Southern Ontario 700 miles to Hudson Bay, covering an area of 330,000 square miles.

This vast territory is largely covered with valuable forests; is rich in minerals; is abundantly watered with lakes and rivers, and has great spaces of fertile soil especially that known as The Great Clay Belt which contains millions of acres of good agricultural land now open for settlement in quarter sections of 160 acres each, at fifty cents per acre.

What settlers say of the soil, climate, farming and forest life is told in a most attractive booklet issued under the direction of the Honourable John S. Martin, Minister of Agriculture for Ontario. Full instructions in regard to acquiring a title of these rich agricultural lands are given, including information relative to free Grants to Returned Soldiers and Sailors. For free copies write—

THE QUEBEC LEGISLATURE.

In accordance with the B.N.A. Act, 1867 (clause 71 and following) the Legislature for the Province of Quebec consists of the Lieutenant-Governor and of two Houses, styled the Legislative Council of Quebec and the Legislative Assembly of Quebec.

The Legislative Councillors are "appointed by the Lieutenant-Governor in Council for life, unless the Legislature of Quebec otherwise provides." The qualifications of the Legislative Councillors are the same as for members of the Senate of Canada and the place of a Legislative Councillor becomes vacant in the cases, mutatis mutandis, in which the place of Senator becomes vacant.

The Legislative Assembly is composed of members elected by the various electoral divisions into which the province is divided.

The work and authority of the two Houses are divided as in the Houses of the Dominion Parliament.

NEW BRUNSWICK LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY

At, and for many years after Confederation, New Brunswick had a Legis. Council as well as a Legis. Assembly. April 16, 1891, and Act (54 Vic., Chap IX) was passed abolishing the Legis. Council and vesting all its powers in the Lieut.-Governor and Assembly, thereafter designated the Legislative Assembly. This Act came into force upon the dissolution of 1892. The "Legislatures" are now officially counted from that date only, the present being known as the "Eighth," although including the sessions prior to 1892, it is really the 15th since Confederation.

Elected by popular vote—48 members, Last g.e., Oct. 1920. Sessional Indemnity, $1,000 and travelling expenses; the Speaker $400 additional.

The last Redistribution Bill was passed in the Session of 1924, by which the City of Fredericton and the Towns of Marysville and Devon were separated from the County of York and constituted an electoral district with one member, the balance of the County of York being constituted an electoral district with three members.

By this Redistribution, also, the Towns of St. Stephen and Milltown were separated from the County of Charlotte and constituted an electoral district with one member, the balance of the County of Charlotte being constituted an electoral district, with three members.

By this Redistribution, no increase was made in the number of Members of the Legislature, being only a division of two existing constituencies.

PROVINCE OF ALBERTA.

(Revised, March 2, 1925.)

With the Province of Saskatchewan formed from part of the Northwest Territories by Act of Dominion Parliament, 1905 (first session, 10th Parliament). The two provinces are divided by the meridian of 110, west from Greenwich. They lie between British Columbia on the west, and Manitoba and the Northwest Territories on the east, and between the International boundary at the 49th parallel on the south, and the 60th parallel on the north. From north to south each province extends 760 miles, or as long as from the mouth of the Detroit River to the mouth of the Saguenay in a straight line. The provisions of the B.N.A. Act, 1867, with its several amendments, apply to the new provinces. THE NORTH WEST TERRITORIES

Hudson Bay, discovered by Henry Hudson, the English sea captain, August 3, 1610, explored in 1612 and 1613 by Captain Button, who wintered at Port Nelson. Inauguration of trade in Northwest by Hudson Bay Co., 1668. Charter granted to H. B. Co. by King of England, 1670. Fort Prince of Wales (Churchill) began 1733. Country west and south west of Hudson Bay explored by Henry Kelsey in 1689 and 1690. Great Slave Lake, Clowey Lake, Artillery Lake, Clinton Colden Lake, Aylmer Lake and the Coppermine River discovered by Samuel Hearne, 1770 and 1771. The Mackenzie River discovered and explored by Alexander Mackenzie, 1789. The Arctic coast from Coronation Gulf to the northernmost spur of the Rocky Mountains explored and mapped by Sir John Franklin's expeditions, 1820 and 1827.

July 31, 1868, The "Rupert's Land Act." passed by the Imperial Parliament providing for the acquisition by the Dominion Government of "Rupert's Land," or the Hudson Bay Territory.

May 11, 1870, £300,000 paid by the Dominion Government for the territorial rights of the Hudson Bay Company in Rupert's Land.

Manitoba and "The North West Territories" (Hudson Bay Territory) became part of the Dominion, July 15, 1870.

District of Keewatin, created 1876.

The districts of Alberta, Assiniboia, Athabasca and Saskatchewan formed from the southern part of the Northwest Territories, 1882.

In 1888 these districts were accorded local responsible government, and the old North West Council replaced by the North West Legislature, which existed up to August 31, 1905.

Districts of Mackenzie, Ungava and Franklin created 1895.

The district of Keewatin, which had formerly been under the administration of the Lieut.-Governor of Manitoba, was, by Order-in-Council on July 24, 1905, re-annexed to the North West Territories and made subject to the same government and laws as the Territories.

September 1, 1905, Alberta and Saskatchewan, comprising the more settled portions of the North West Territories, south of the 60th parallel, N. latitude, began their existence as separate provinces.

Legislation passed during the 1911-1912 (1st session, 12th Parlt.) session of the Dominion Parliament, provided for the division of the district of Keewatin between the provinces of Ontario and Manitoba. By this legislation the territory of Manitoba was extended northerly to the 60th parallel of latitude, which also forms the northern boundary of the provinces of Saskatchewan and Alberta. The eastern boundary of Manitoba was extended in a north-easterly direction to Hudson Bay. The remaining southern part of Keewatin was added to Ontario. By the same Act the whole of the district of Ungava was added to the Province of Quebec.

The islands in James Bay, Hudson Bay, Hudson Strait and other northern waters were not included in the territory added to the Province.

The North West Territories, as at present existing, consequently include these islands, many of them of large area, and the vast unorganized districts of Franklin and Mackenzie. According to the evidence heard before a select committee of the Senate during the session of 1906-07, immense areas of the districts of Keewatin and Mackenzie offer exceptional inducements to capitalists, lumbermen, sportsmen, fishermen and prospectors.

Area of North West Territories: 773,072,400 acres of land, 21,950,950 acres of water; total 795,023,360 acres or 1,242,224 square miles.

Population according to census of 1911, 6,507; 1921, 7,988; estimate of Bureau of Statistics, 1924, 8,490.

GOVERNMENT OF THE TERRITORIES.

The Government of the North West Territories was provided for at the time of the interruption of the existing territorial government by the creation of the Provinces of Saskatchewan and Alberta. According to the North West Territories Act of 1905, which is chapter 62 of the Revised Statutes of 1906, as amended in 1907, the Governor-General appoints for the Territories a chief executive officer styled and known as the Commissioner of the North West Territories, who exercises the executive powers which were vested in the Lieutenant-Governor of the N.W. Territories in Council on Aug. 31, 1905, the date of the separation of the new provinces of Alberta and Saskatchewan from the old North West Territories so far as these executive powers "are applicable to and capable of being exercised in relation to the Government of the North West Territories as at present constituted." There is a special provision that "The Commissioner shall administer the government of the Territories under instructions from time to time given him by the Governor-in-Council or the Minister of the Interior."

SUPREME COURT OF CANADA

The Supreme Court of Canada (as also the Exchequer Court) was constituted in 1785 under "The Supreme and Exchequer Court Act" (38 Vic., Chap. 11).

The Supreme Court has jurisdiction as a High Court of Appeal in both civil and criminal cases throughout the Dominion of Canada. It is also a Court of Appeal for controverted election cases, from the Exchequer Court, from the Board of Railway Commissioners as provided in the Railway Act and under the Winding-up Act. It also has jurisdiction in controversies between the provinces and the Dominion. The Governor-in-Council may refer to the Supreme Court for an opinion upon any matter deemed advisable in the public interest. From the decision of the Supreme Court an appeal lies to the Judicial Committee of the Privy Council of Great Britain by special leave of the Judicial Committee in all cases except appeals which come to the Supreme Court from the Exchequer Court sitting as a Court of Admiralty. In the latter case alone there is an appeal as of right.

The Supreme Court sits in Ottawa, where the judges reside and where three sessions annually are held, beginning on the third Tuesday in February, the first Tuesday in May and the first Tuesday in October.

In 1896 Parliament amended the Supreme Court Act by repealing s. 4, and substituting therefor the following: "The Supreme Court shall consist of a chief justice, to be called the Chief Justice of Canada, and five puisne judges who shall be appointed by the Governor-in-Council by letters patent under the Great Seal." This section appears in this form in the Supreme Court Act, R.S.C., c. 139, s. 4.

Sections VII and VIII of the letters patent passed under the Great Seal of the United Kingdom, dated June 15, 1905, constituting the office of Governor-General and Commander in Chief of the Dominion of Canada, read as follow:—

"VII. And we do hereby declare Our pleasure to be that, in the event of the death, incapacity, removal, or absence of Our said Governor-General out of Our said Dominion, all and every the powers and authorities herein granted to him shall, until Our further pleasure is signified therein, be vested in such person as may be appointed by Us under Our Sign Manual and Signet to be Our Lieutenant-Governor of Our said Dominion; or, if there shall be no such person or persons as may be appointed by Us under Our Sign Manual and Signet to administer the Government of the same; and in case there shall be no person or persons within Our said Dominions so appointed by Us, then in Our Chief Justice for the time being of the Supreme Court of Our said Dominion; or, in case of the death, incapacity, removal, or absence out of Our said Dominion of Our said Chief Justice for the time being, then in the Senior Judge for the time being of Our said Supreme Court then residing in Our said Dominion and not being under incapacity.

"Provided always, that the said Senior Judge shall act in the administration of the Government only if and when Our said Chief Justice shall not be present within Our said Dominion and capable of administering the Government.

"Provided further that no such powers or authorities shall vest in such Lieutenant-Governor, or such other person or persons, until he or they shall have taken the Oaths appointed to be taken by the Governor-General of Our said Dominion and in the manner provided by the Instructions accompanying these Our Letters Patent.

"VIII. And we do hereby require and command all Our Officers and Ministers, Civil and Military, and all other, the inhabitants of Our said Dominions, to be obedient, aiding and assisting unto Our said Governor-General; or, in the event of his death, incapacity or absence, to such person or persons as may from time to time, under the provisions of these Our Letters Patent, administer the Government of Our said Dominion."

It was notified in the London Gazette of May 21, 1913, that the King had been pleased to approve of the use and recognition throughout His Majesty's Dominions during tenure of office of the title of "Honourable" in the case of the Chief Justice of Canada, the Judges of the Supreme and Exchequer Courts of Canada and some others.

OFFICIAL PRECEDENCE

The establishment and the maintenance of tables or scales of official precedence result from the fact that in all nations and communities there are individuals, who, because they have entrusted to them by the nation the performance of certain responsible and honorable official or communal functions, are by common accord, regarded, either for the time being, or permanently, as occupying positions of various degrees of eminence in the social fabric.

In the old patriarchal communities social pre-eminence was naturally accorded to the heads of the tribal families, and precedence throughout the tribes was generally regulated by the seniority of the sons of the patriarchs and the individuals of their families. Of course there were exceptions to this rule, due to the personal ambitions and achievements of individuals.

Since nations have been evolved from the old tribal organizations, an official class of citizens has been developed, comprising those who, besides occupying the usual position of members of the state, have entrusted to them the execution of what have been described as the life functions of the nation; that is such functions as are peculiar to the civic organization in contradistinction to the general functions exercised and actions performed by individual citizens as independent units. Official service calls in a special degree for a sense of duty to the public trust, and in many cases for a spirit of sacrifice and, if needs be, self effacement. In recognition of these conditions, and often for very practical state reasons, special privileges are granted to certain of the more responsible officials within the spheres appointed for them. So public service has come to be the one outstanding element in determining relative rank in social etiquette—the corner stone of all official tables of social precedence.

“Precedence” has been defined as the priority of place, or superiority in rank, in the conventional system of arrangement under which the more eminent and dignified orders of a community are classified on occasion of public ceremony and in the intercourse of private life.

Public functions of some form or another occur with more or less frequency in every state, and those who serve and represent the people in official capacities are necessarily the principal, often the only, participants. An ordinary sense of decency, not to speak of dignity or that wholesome sense of national pride which exists in all races, demands that such functions be orderly, and that the monopoly of places of honour be placed beyond the accomplishment of the assuming upstart and unworthy elements to the exclusion of those entrusted by the nation with the administration of its affairs and the guardianship of its interests and honour, and thus, in a very special sense, representing it.

It is not alone in countries where monarchical systems of government prevail that precedence is a subject of official regulation, republics finding it indispensable that provision be made for checking the tendency of ambitious and often selfish and unpatriotic individuals and elements to monopolize the highest distinctions and honours and ignore the claims of the devoted and trusted officers and servants of the nation—its recognized official representatives. The famous "protocol" of the French Republic is a case in point.

Throughout the British Empire or Commonwealth of Nations, the "Tables" or "Scales" of Precedence emanate from the Crown, and are issued under authority of the Sovereign. The Crown is "the fountain of honour," and it is its undoubted prerogative to confer on any of its subjects, in any part of its dominions, such titles and distinctions and such rank and place "as to it may seem meet and convenient." Its discretion is limited in those cases only wherein it has been submitted to restraint by Act of Parliament.

There is not, even in the Mother Country, any complete and comprehensive code whereby the scheme of social gradation has been defined and settled, once and for all, on a permanent foundation. The principles and rules at present controlling it have been formulated at different periods and have been derived from various sources.

In the old time, questions of precedence came in the ordinary course of things within the jurisdiction of the Courts of Chivalry in which figured such picturesque officials as lord high constables, earl marshals, kings of arms, heralds, pursuivants, etc. Points of unusual moment were referred to and decided by the sovereign in person, the privy council, or parliament.

Although there were "estates" titles and orders of various degrees in England from earliest historical times the oldest English table of precedence in existence is the "Order of All Estates of Nobles and Gentry" prepared for the coronation of Henry IV in 1399.

In the thirty-first year of King Henry VIII, Parliament, by statutory enactment, took cognizance of Precedence. It then passed the "Act for Placing the Lords," which, although it concerned directly only the Great Officers of State, and referred but incidentally to the places of the Nobility, has since been considered the chief authority for the marshalling of dignities.

This Act was originated, it is important to remember, by the desire of the King, and it is declared, as a preliminary, that "although it appertained altogether to the Royal Prerogative to give such honour, reputation, and placing to his Councillors and others his subjects as should be seeming to the King's most excellent wisdom, the King was nevertheless pleased and contented for an order to be had and taken in his Most High Court of Parliament for the placing of the Great Officers and Lords."

The Statute of Henry VIII was in the nature of a declaratory Act, confirming the ancient and pre-existing Law of Precedence, and, in confirmation of this, it is a matter of historical fact that the advice of Garter King of Arms was taken before the bill was brought in. This Act of King Henry VIII's parliament still remains the only legislative measure in which it has been attempted to deal directly and systematically with any large and important section of the English scale or Table of Precedence. (There are separate tables for Scotland, Ireland, Wales, each Dominion, India and the Crown Colonies.)

Where no act of Parliament applies, precedence is determined by the will of the Sovereign or by what is accepted as "ancient usage and established custom."

Lists that show practice and custom in matters of precedence, such as are seen in the published accounts of assemblies of the estates of the realm such as at solemnities—Coronations, funerals, and the like, have been invoked in the preparation of the various Tables of precedence at present in force throughout the Empire.

Strict observance of these lists is insisted upon, for the principle underlying the maintenance of these lists is the protection of established right; and the least interference, unless made by Royal or Parliamentary authority, would be destructive of the right of some one entitled to rank on the scale, and not unlikely to dishonour the State in the person of a recognized representative.

It is Men's rank that confers precedence and regulates State Ceremonials. At the King's Courts, where husbands and wives pass His Majesty together, the precedence of the husbands is that which is regarded.

The wives and children of great officers of State and of all of those who derive their places on the scale from official rank, have no consequent precedence.

Foreign Titles of Nobility borne by British subjects afford their holders no precedence whatever in the Mother Country or elsewhere in the Empire, and, strictly speaking, a Royal License should be obtained for their use.

Persons entitled to precedence in the United Kingdom, in Foreign Countries, or in any particular Dominion or Colony, are not entitled, as of a right, to the same precedence elsewhere; but in the absence of any special Instruction from the King, the precedence of such persons in the Overseas Dominions and Colonies of the British Commonwealth is determined by the King's Representative (the Governor General or Governor).

TABLE OF PRECEDENCE FOR CANADA.

The official Table of Precedence is established and subject to regulations by the Home Government, acting through the Right Honourable the Secretary of State for the Colonies. The first table of Precedence for the Dominion was prepared at Confederation. The first important amendment was announced in despatches from the Secretary of State for the Colonies bearing date Nov. 3, 1879 and published in the Statutes of Canada of 1880 (43 Victoria, p. XXII). The next amendment was announced in a despatch dated Downing Street, Dec. 29, 1893, and published in the Canada Gazette, Jan. 20, 1894. The last noted amendment assigned, on the recommendation of the Dominion Government, precedence to the Controllors of Customs and Inland Revenue and the Lieutenant-Governors of Manitoba, British Columbia, Prince Edward Island and the North West Territories.

During the administration of Sir Mackenzie Bowell some suggestions for a further revision of the Table of Precedence were made to the Colonial Office, but there was a change of Government before the matter reached a final issue.

December, 1923, a revised Table of Precedence approved by the King, and despatched from the Colonial Office, December 3, 1923, was received by His Excellency the Governor-General and published in the Canada Gazette on December 22nd as follows:—

NOTE—Judges at present on the retired list and Judges at present holding Office but who shall retire after the date of the New Table shall not be affected as to Precedence given to them by the Old Table*

THOMAS MULVEY,

Under-Secretary of State

In the revised table the designation of places for the Lieutenant Governors of Saskatchewan and Alberta (9 and 10) are new; so are section 11, designating the place of the Prime Minister of Canada; section 13, according places to "The Moderator of the Presbyterian Church in Canada, the General Superintendent of the Methodist Church in Canada, and the corresponding head of the Baptist Church in Canada"; section 19, providing for the Prime Ministers of the Provinces of Canada; the concluding clause of section 20, providing for the Judge appointed to perform the duties of Chief Justice at Quebec and Montreal; section 27, providing for the Chief of Staff National Defence, the Director of Naval Services and the Director of the Air Force provided they are of the rank of Major-General or its equivalent or higher rank. The Speaker and members of the House of Commons are given relatively higher place than accorded to them in the old list.

The following items in the old list disappear altogether in the revised one:—

2. The Senior Officer Commanding His Majesty's Troops within the Dominion, if of the rank of a General, and the Officer Commanding His Majesty's Naval Forces on the B.N.A. Station if of the rank of an Admiral. Their own relative rank to be determined by the King's Regulations on the subject.
10. The Lieutenant-Governor of the North West Territories.
18. The Controller of Customs.
19. The Controller of Inland Revenue.
20. General Officers of His Majesty's Army serving in the Dominion, and Officers of the rank of Admiral in the Royal Navy serving on the B.N.A. Station, not being in the chief command. The relative rank of such officers to be determined by the King's Regulations.

*Retired Judges were given precedence next after the present Judge of their respective Courts by the Old Table.

21. The Chief Officer commanding His Majesty's troops in the Dominion, if of the rank of Colonel or inferior rank, and the Officer commanding His Majesty's Naval Forces on the B.N.A. Station, if of equivalent rank, their relative rank to be ascertained by the King's Regulations.

An important feature of the revised table is the omission of any reference to Imperial Privy Councillors. Since 1903 it had been the practice, with the sanction of the Governor-General, to accord certain precedence to Imperial Privy Councillors; and the omission of reference to such officers in the revised list has been taken as an indication that the practice mentioned be discontinued, and it has been.

Official rank and position, although conferring special official precedence on the holder of the office as per the Table of Precedence, does not do so any more in Canada than in the Mother Country, upon the holder's wife and children. Thus the wives and children of Privy Councillors, Senators, Judges, members of Parliament, and officers of state, as such, have no special precedence, except such as is accorded to them (and it is always done) as a compliment. Widows of Privy Councillors, Senators, Judges, or public officials, have no claims to complimentary precedence as such, any claim they might have had in that respect lapsing with the demise of their husbands.

Knightly titles or other Imperial titles and appointments do not entitle the holders to any recognition under the Official Table of Precedence for Canada.

This is a fact which is often overlooked by those in charge of semi-official and popular ceremonial events, and gentlemen entitled to precedence in Canada by the official table sanctioned by the Sovereign, often find themselves ignored in favour of others having no claim whatever to precedence in Canada although they may be entitled to recognized places in the Mother Country or other parts of the Empire.

Members of the Royal Family while in Canada take precedence next after the Governor-General, this according to a rule in effect throughout His Majesty's Dominions.

OFFICIAL RULES RE SPELLING.

The spelling in official documents in all branches of the public service of the Dominion of Canada is regulated by a minute of the Privy Council signed by the late Rt. Hon. Sir John A. Macdonald, dated May 30, 1890, and reading as follows:

"The undersigned, to whom was referred a communication from Doctor Hurlbert addressed to the Secretary on the subject of the spelling of certain English words, and also a letter from the Queen's printer in reference thereto, has the honour to report:—

"That, in his opinion, the only question with respect to the spelling of such words as "honour," "favour" "labour," "honourable," and the like is, what is the mode now accepted by the best authorities in England. It appears to him to be obvious that the same system should obtain in all portions of the British Empire.

On a reference to the best dictionaries and encyclopædia now in use in England, it will be seen that these words are spelt with the "u," and that such forms as "labor," "favor," "honor," "honorable," etc., are apparently confined to the United States, with the exception of some few instances where they have been adopted in Canada.

In consequence of this reference, the undersigned has taken occasion to inquire into the mode of spelling these words in official and Legislative use in England, and he has ascertained that the "u" is in all such cases retained.

The undersigned therefore recommends the issue of instructions to the effect that in all official documents, in the Canada Gazette, and in the Dominion Statutes, the English practice be uniformly followed.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

A handbook of rules authorized for use at the Government Printing Bureau practically regulates (under the above minute of Council) the systems of spelling, contractions, capitalization, punctuation, etc., in Government publications.

According to this book the "Imperial Dictionary" is the standard to be followed in all cases of orthography. When there is a choice, preference is to be given to the spelling under which the definition is found.

Foreign words, such as "ad valorem," "aide-de-camp," which have become anglicized by constant use, incorporated into English sentences, should not be italics.

Capital letters are to be avoided as much as possible, but to be used in the following cases:

(1) All proper names, gentile nouns and adjectives derived therefrom, and the names of religions begin with capitals.

(2) Leading substantives in the titles of books and publications must be capitalized.

(3) The first word of every direct quotation, example, precept or question, should begin with a capital letter, and be preceded by a punctuation mark, preferably by a comma. Quotations introduced indirectly as by conjunction that, or examples consisting of more words or phrases, take a small letter.

(4) The word Department, Titles of Honour, etc., etc., are capitalized as proper names when preceded or succeeded by name of Department, as Department of Public Printing and Stationery, His Majesty the King, Minister of Public Works.

(5) Names of streets, roads, etc., to be two words, with initial capitals, as Sparks Street, Cartier Square.

(6) Act, when referring to Act of Parliament, is capitalized.

SPELLING IN ONTARIO SCHOOLS

The standard of English spelling taught in the schools of Ontario is briefly but amply explained by the following copy of an Order-in-Council, approved by His Honour the Lieutenant-Governor, the 14th day of January, A.D., 1900:

"Upon the recommendation of the Honourable the Minister of Education, the Committee of Council advise that in order to secure, as far as practicable, uniformity in spelling and pronunciation in our schools, the British system, as set forth in the Imperial Dictionary, be that adopted for the text books to be used in the schools of the Province of Ontario.

"Certified.

"(Signed) J. LONSDALE CAPREOL, Clerk, Executive Council."

THE GEOGRAPHIC BOARD

Questions concerning geographic names in Canada are decided by the Geographic Board of Canada, created by Order-in-Council dated Dec. 18, 1897, and reading as follows:

"His Excellency, by and with the advice of the Queen's Privy Council of Canada, is pleased to create a 'Geographic Board,' to consist of one member for each of the Departments of the Geological Surveys, Railways and Canals, Post Office, and Marine and Fisheries, such member being appointed by the Minister of the Department; of the Surveyor-General of the Dominion Lands, of such other members as may from time to time be appointed by Order-in-Council, and an officer of the Department of the Interior, designated by the Minister of the Interior, who shall act as Secretary, of the Board, and to authorize the Board to elect its chairman and to make such rules and regulations for the transaction of its business as may be requisite.

"His Excellency is further pleased to order and direct that all questions concerning geographic names in the Dominion which arise in the departments of the public service shall be referred to the Board, and that all departments shall accept and use in their publications the names and orthography adopted by the Board."

This Order-in-Council was amended by another of date Dec. 14, 1899, which provided:

"That the Order-in-Council constituting the Board be amended by giving to the Government of the North-West Territories and to each Province the right to nominate one of their officials as a member of the Board, who shall advise the Board with reference to names in his Province, provided that the several Governments undertake to be guided by the decisions of the Board."

Later, Provincial representatives were appointed, the several Provincial Governments undertaking to be guided by the decisions of the Board.

RULES OF NOMENCLATURE

The following general rules of nomenclature have been laid down by the Geographic Boards.

1. When the priority of a name has been established by publication, particularly when such publication has occurred in any standard or authoritative work or works, that name should, if possible, be retained.

2. When names have been changed or corrupted, if not too firmly established by local usage, or otherwise, the original forms should be restored.

3. In cases where what was evidently originally the same word appears with various spellings sanctioned by local usage or otherwise, these various spellings when applied to different features should be regarded as in effect different names, and, as a rule, it is inadvisable to attempt to produce uniformity.

4. As a rule the first published name should be retained; but where a choice is offered between two or more names for the same place or locality, all sanctioned by local usage, that which is most appropriate and euphonious should be adopted.

5. The possessive form should be avoided wherever it can be done without destroying the euphony of the name or changing its descriptive application. Where the possessive form is retained the apostrophe should be dropped.

6. It is desirable to avoid the use of hyphens to connect parts of Indian names.

7. Names consisting of more than one word may be connected by hyphens or combined in one word, as may be advisable.

8. It is desired to avoid the use of the words city and town as parts of names.

9. The form "canyon" may be used instead of cañon."

10. The term "brook" is considered preferable to "creek" for designating small streams, and will be adopted in cases where the latter has not become too firmly fixed.

11. The Board suggests that the initial letter of generic or descriptive parts of geographic names, when used in reports or other documents, should not be capitals.

12. The use of alternative names should be discontinued where possible or not convenient.

13. Geographical names in foreign countries should be rendered in the form adopted by that country, except where there are English equivalents already fixed by usage.

14. French names in Canada are to be spelt according to the rules of the French language.

15. The spelling of native geographical names should represent approximately the true sound of the words as pronounced in the native tongue.

16. The Board adopts the rules of the Royal Geographical Society for the orthography of geographical names, of which the broad features are as follows:

- (a) The vowels are to be pronounced as in Italian and the consonants as in French.
- (b) Every letter is pronounced, and on redundant letters are introduced. When two vowels come together each one is sounded, though the result when spoken quickly, is sometimes scarcely to be distinguished from a single sound, as in ai, au, ei.
- (c) One accent is used, the acute, to denote the syllable on which stress is laid. This is very important, as the sounds on many names are entirely altered by the misplacement of this "stress."

NEW COAT OF ARMS FOR THE DOMINION

The London Gazette, November 23, 1921, contained a Royal proclamation, acceding to the request of "the Governor-General in Council of our Dominion of Canada," for a new coat of arms for the Dominion, described by the proclamation in heraldic terms as follows:

"We hereby appoint and declare that the arms or ensigns armorial of the Dominion of Canada shall be tierced in fese, the first and second divisions containing the quarterly coat following, namely, 1st gules, three lions passant guardant in pale or; 2nd or, a lion rampant within a double tressure flory counterflory gules; 3rd, azure, a harp or, stringed argent; 4th, azure, three fleur-de-lis or; and the third division argent, three maple leaves conjoined on one stem proper.

"And upon a royal helmet mantled, argent, doubled gules, the crest, that is to say, on a wreath of the colours argent and gules, a lion passant guardant or, imperially crowned proper and holding in the dexter paw a maple leaf gules.

"And for supporters on the dexter, a lion rampant or, holding a lance argent, point or; flying therefrom to the dexter, the Union flag; and on the sinister, an unicorn argent armed, crined and unguled, or gorged with a coronet composed of crosses patees and fleur-de-lis, a chain affixed thereto, reflexed of the last, and holding axe-like lance; flying therefrom to the sinister a banner azure charged with fleurs-de-lis or,

"The whole ensigned with the Imperial crown proper and below the shield upon a wreath composed of roses, thistles, shamrocks and lilies, a scroll azure inscribed with the motto: 'A mari usque ad mare'."

In Memoriam

COLONEL Ernest John Chambers, Gentleman Usher of the Black Rod since 1904, died May 11, 1925 at Vaudreuil, Que. Since 1908 he edited the Canadian Parliamentary Guide. He was born in England in 1862, and came to Canada with his parents in 1870. As soldier and journalist, and in the public service for nearly fifty years, he was actively and intimately associated with national affairs. In referring to his public service, Hon. Raoul Dandurand on the announcement of his death in the Senate said, "The Government on many occasions utilized his services as official representative, because of his dignity, his tact, his knowledge of men and his affability;" and Sir James Lougheed, after paying tribute to his personal qualities, said, "No man in Canada had such a knowledge of parliamentary precedent, parliamentary lore and tradition, and all the functions and pageantry of parliament."

THE SENATE OF CANADA

NOTICE FOR PRIVATE BILLS

EXTRACTS FROM RULES OF THE SENATE

All applications to Parliament for Private Bills, of any nature whatsoever, shall be advertised by a Notice published in the Canada Gazette. Such notice shall clearly and distinctly state the nature and objects of the application, and shall be signed by or on behalf of the applicants, with the address of the party signing the same; and, when the application is for an Act of Incorporation, the name of the proposed company shall be stated in the Notice.

In case where exclusive powers are asked, in addition to the Notice in the Canada Gazette aforesaid, a similar notice shall also be published in some leading newspaper in the principal city, town or village, in each county or district and in each province or territory which may be affected by the passage of such Private Bills, according to the nature of the undertakings contemplated thereby.

And, if the works of any Company (incorporated or to be incorporated) are to be declared to be for the general advantage of Canada, such intention shall be specifically mentioned in the notice; and the applicants shall cause a copy of such notice to be sent by registered letter to the clerk of each county council and of each municipal corporation which may be specially affected by the construction or operation of such works, and also to the Secretary of the Province in which such works are, or may be located, so as to reach those officers not less than five weeks before the consideration of the petition by the Committee of Standing Orders; and a statutory declaration establishing the fact of such mailing shall be sent to the Clerk of the Senate.

All such notices, whether inserted in the Canada Gazette or in a newspaper, shall be published at least once a week for a period of five consecutive weeks; and, when published in the Provinces of Quebec and Manitoba, shall be in both the English and French languages; and marked copies of each issue of all newspapers containing any such notice shall be sent to the Clerk of the Senate, endorsed "Private Bill Notice," or a statutory declaration as to due publication may be sent in lieu thereof.

For fuller particulars, see the Rules of the Senate relative thereto published in the Canada Gazette, or apply at this office.

THE PORT of MONTREAL

Is the Fifth greatest Harbour in the world; the second greatest on the North American Continent; and the foremost Port in Canada.

It is the world's greatest grain exporting Port, having since 1921 handled the following quantities of grain:—

1921	-	138,000,000	bushels
1922	-	155,000,000	„
1923	-	120,000,000	„
1924	-	165,000,000	„

SITUATED at the strategic point where inland navigation forms junction with ocean traffic—and where rail meets sail—the growth of the Port of Montreal to its present important position was inevitable.

The Port is equipped in the most up-to-date manner with every facility for the efficient handling of freight, and its towing, pilotage and bunkering services are second to none.

SERVING CANADA

ELEVEN years ago, Imperial Oil Limited served its customers throughout the Dominion from its one oil refinery at Sarnia.

Today six great Imperial Oil plants manufacture petroleum products for distinct sections of the country. Five additional plants, located at Dartmouth, N.S., Montreal, Regina, Calgary and Ioco, B.C., have been added to make up a great Trans-Canada chain of Imperial refineries.

Strategic location of these refineries enables us to supply Imperial Oil products more adequately, quickly and economically to every section of Canada.

At each refinery the experience of fifty years refining practice governs all operations and the standards of quality at one plant are the standards for all.
